

LOGAN

龙光集团

Energy Policy

1. Logan Group Company Limited is committed to improving energy efficiency.
2. According to our energy policy:
 - 1) The Company fully considers energy efficiency in the planning, designing, constructing and operating stages;
 - 2) The Company advocates its partners to improve energy efficiency to reduce their environmental impact;
 - 3) The Company fully considers energy efficiency and environmental impact when formulating procurement policies;
 - 4) The Company develops and implements advanced construction technology and office systems to enhance the Company's energy conservation;
 - 5) The Company ensures it provides sufficient information and resources to formulate, monitor and regularly review energy policies and targets;
 - 6) The Company regularly conducts energy policy training to enhance energy-saving awareness at work and in daily life;

7) The Company complies with relevant legal requirements and adopts industry best practices in daily operations and services.

3. We will review this policy every year.