

LOGAN

龙光集团

Environmental Protection Policy

1. Logan Group Company Limited is committed to managing and mitigating the impact on the environment in its business operations.
2. According to the environmental protection policy:
 - 1) The Company assesses the impact of business operations on the environment and sets environmental protection objectives to minimize the potential impact on the environment;
 - 2) The Company promotes the use of environmental protection materials and new technologies in design, construction and daily operation;
 - 3) The Company provides sufficient resources to formulate, monitor and regularly review the Company's environmental policies and objectives;
 - 4) The Company regularly organizes environmental education and training to enhance employees' awareness of environmental protection;
 - 5) The Company comprehensively considers the environmental factors in the formulation of procurement management policies;

- 6) The Company encourages employees, contractors and suppliers to fulfill their environmental responsibilities and fulfill their environmental commitments;
- 7) The Company formulates environmental protection policies and standards, and integrates relevant environmental protection experience in the industry into daily management;
- 8) The Company shares its environmental protection policies and management strategies with partners including employees, contractors and suppliers;

3. We will review this policy every year.