

LOGAN

龙光集团

Responsible Marketing

1. Logan Group Company Limited is committed to becoming an excellent corporate citizen. For product promotion, the Company has always maintained a pragmatic approach. To this end, the Company has formulated relevant promotion and sales implementation policies and relevant supervision systems, including:

- 1) All marketing advertisements, external publicity materials and promotions must comply with the requirements of "Advertising Law", "Regulations on Real Estate Advertising Releases" and local policies and regulations, and strictly implement the Group's overall risk control system and the control rules issued by the marketing management center;
- 2) We will continue to carry out self-examination and self-correction work to ensure that our marketing activities are true and reliable, including advertising, street graphic design, sales pitch, marketing material packaging, model room display, etc.;
- 3) We will also continue to carry out relevant training for marketing lines and all employees to ensure that the Group's publicity is authentic, reliable and responsible.

2. We will review this policy every year.