

LOGAN

龙光集团

Sustainable Development Policy

1. Logan Group Company Limited is committed to operating in an environmentally, socially and economically responsible manner.
2. According to the sustainable development policy
 - (1) The Company cooperates with other organizations to promote sustainable development policies to the real estate industry;
 - (2) The Company values and protects natural resources and biodiversity, and evaluates and properly manages all potential negative impacts on the environment caused by its business operations;
 - (3) The Company maintains regular communication with customers to understand their views and demands;
 - (4) The Company is committed to becoming an excellent employer and creating an equal and respected working environment;
 - (5) The Company establishes good relations with the communities where the business is carried out, respects their local culture and relevant local characteristics, and promotes common development;
 - (6) The Company advocates suppliers and contractors with sustainable development and encourages them to implement policies similar to the sustainable development policy;

(7) The Company encourages all employees to actively participate in sustainable development activities at work and in the community;

3. We will review this policy every year.